

Power Move 10: MVP as Brand-Anchored Offer Validation

PURPOSE

Your offer is a hypothesis until the market votes. This worksheet forces the vote. No hiding behind positioning, aesthetics, or “brand work.” Ask for the sale. Measure what happens. Learn fast.

THE MVP YOU ARE TESTING (NAME IT)

MVP name:

MVP format (service / product / hybrid):

Who it is for (one sentence):

Launch type (quiet / public):

MINIMUM VIABLE PROMISE (ONE SENTENCE)

Write the promise as a before/after. Not features. Not deliverables.

Minimum Viable Promise (one sentence):

WHAT IS INCLUDED (ONLY WHAT IS REQUIRED TO KEEP THE PROMISE)

List the minimum components required to deliver the promise at your standard.

Included components (5 max):

1.
2.
3.

WHAT IS INTENTIONALLY EXCLUDED (TO PROTECT FOCUS)

This is how you prevent the Frankenstein offer.

Excluded on purpose (5 max):

1.
2.
3.

THE “BRAND-SAFE” BOUNDARY

If you are established, you do not get to test sloppiness. Define the floor.

Quality floor (what must be true every time):

--

Expectation setting (what you will say up front so the buyer is not surprised):

THE TEST GROUP (WHO VOTES FIRST)

Early adopters only. Small circle. Clean data.

Test group definition:

How you will recruit them (one channel):

Target number of buyers (small):

THE OFFER TERMS (SO THE VOTE IS REAL)

Price:

Delivery window:

Capacity limit (if any):

Refund / guarantee posture (one sentence):

THE CONVERSION PATH (HOW THEY BUY)

Where they land (page / DM / call):

What they do next (one step):

What counts as a conversion (choose one):

- Paid in full
- Deposit paid
- Signed + paid

Chosen conversion definition:

THE THREE MEASUREMENTS (KEEP IT SIMPLE)

You are measuring reality, not vibes.

MEASUREMENT 1: CONVERSION

Offers made:

Buyers:

Conversion rate:

MEASUREMENT 2: FRICTION

Top 3 buyer questions/objections you did not predict:

1.

2.

3.

For each, decide the cause (choose one):

Messaging problem

Delivery problem

MEASUREMENT 3: OUTCOME

What result did buyers actually get (one sentence):

Where reality matched the promise:

Where reality missed the promise:

THE THREE TESTS (REPEATABLE / SUSTAINABLE / SCALABLE)

Keep the answers simple as a quick check to be sure you can leverage what you have to grow to the size of your vision.

Repeatable: what required you (the founder) to carry it?

Sustainable: what did delivery cost (time, energy, margin)?

Scalable: what breaks if you double volume next month?

THE DECISION (DO NOT LEAVE THIS PAGE WITHOUT CHOOSING)

Choose one:

- Persevere (keep the core, tighten the weak point)
- Pivot (change the promise, price, segment, or model)

Decision:

One structural change for the next iteration (one sentence):

Next test date (put it on the calendar):
