

Power Move 8: World-Building

The World-Building Stack

World-building is the place. Vibe is the feeling. This worksheet turns “place” into decisions you can enforce.

HOW TO USE THIS

Write in plain language. Write what you can actually control. If it cannot be enforced, it is not a standard.

THE WORLD IN ONE LINE

World name (internal working name):

One-line description (what this world is for):

Who belongs here (one sentence):

Who does not (one sentence):

LAYER 1: LANGUAGE

Write the words and phrases that signal “this is us.”

Use list (10 words or phrases that belong here):

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.

7.

8.

9.

10.

Refuse list (10 words or phrases banned here):

1.

2.

3.

4.

5.

6.
7.
8.
9.
10.

Clarity rule (finish the sentence): If a new person cannot understand it in 10 seconds, then the language is too clever.

LAYER 2: RHYTHMS

Rhythms are repeatable behaviors you lead. They move someone from outsider to participant. Answer what happens, when, and why it matters.

Rhythm 1:

Rhythm 2:

Rhythm 3:

Optional Rhythm 4:

Optional Rhythm 5:

Rhythm rule (finish the sentence): If the rhythm is optional, then the world is optional.

LAYER 3: SYMBOLS AND ARTIFACTS

Artifacts are the badges and tools that make belonging visible. They are not just merch. In service businesses, artifacts are tools, proof, and milestones that make the experience tangible and repeatable.

Examples (service businesses):

Financial advisor: a 1-page monthly review checklist.

Interior designer: a room-by-room spec sheet.

Hair stylist: a personalized maintenance card.

Pick what fits your model.

Gateway artifact (low-friction, attaches to an existing habit): What is it?

What habit does it attach to?

Rite-of-passage artifact (earned, not bought): What gets completed to earn it?

What do they receive?

Authority artifact (signals rank, competence, or credibility inside the world): What behavior or proof earns it?

What is the visible marker?

Rhythm artifact (tool that makes the rhythm easier): What rhythm does it support?

What tool makes it stick?

Relational artifact (creates recognition between members): What is the marker?

What does it signal to “the room”?

LAYER 4: STATUS MARKERS

Status is earned, not bought. Define what gets respect here.

What earns respect here (5 behaviors):

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

What disqualifies someone here (5 behaviors):

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.

LAYER 5: RULES AND ENFORCEMENT

Rules protect the experience. Enforcement proves you mean it.

Rule 1:

Rule 2:

Rule 3:

Rule 4:

Rule 5:

Enforcement posture (finish the sentence): Standards without enforcement are theater.

THE THREE DECISIONS (WHAT YOU WILL DECIDE TODAY)

Decision 1 (language):

Decision 2 (rhythm):

Decision 3 (rule/enforcement):
